The Delica Nameplate dates back to 1968 when Mitsubishi first produced the T100 Light commercial cab-over pickup. Only a year later the model line-up also gained a cargo van and passenger van. The passenger van called the Delica Coach could seat 9 people in three rows of seats. The second generation Delica began in 1979.

The engine code is usually stamped somewhere into the engine block. The first 4 or 5 letters / numbers usually provide enough technical information for a car parts supplier to find the right engine related car part for you. You can search our database for engine codes which have been specified with requests in the past.
