School's out poem - Share My Lesson

Trying to recapture the joy of those winter days is difficult. School cancelled: sun shining through the sheer, white, curtains into an all too girly room, the sound of a tea kettle's whistle, the ice cold feeling of oak boards on bare feet, between scatter rugs; I ran to the kitchen. The transistor radio sounded, still calling out school closings.

School's Out - Poem by Debbie Guzzi - Poems - Poets

The final bell, and school is done, Our summertime awaits. Through days of sun, with best of friends, Adventures we'll create. The sun has barely crest the hill, And through the door we run.

SCHOOLS OUT - Poem by Jerry Troiano

School's Out by James McDonald The school books are gone, And the teachers are too. The schoolhouse is closed, So what's there to do? Well, you could go to the lake, And jump right on in, And swim like a fish, With a slippery fin. But no matter the course, That you set out to take, Ensure you enjoy it, Even if it's not at a lake.

but not so much I get a no. That's a way I've found of gaining what I want, by catching Ma off guard, especially when I'm after permission to play piano. Right out asking her is no good. She always gets testy about me playing, even though she's the one who truly taught me. Anyway, this time I caught her in the slow stirring of biscuits,
