to be. Jesus called His original disciples by saying, "Follow Me," and He later explained that we must be born again. But what do those terms mean? Ultimately, salvation, or being born again, means leaving your old ways behind and trusting God. He initiated a relationship with you and offered you a way to experience that relationship.

underestimate the power of truth-training. If we do, then disciples will carelessly stumble into a way of living life that may or may not look like their Master. Training often carries the connotation of a sterile classroom. With the forming of a disciple, we should aim for so much more. The teaching by Jesus is that disciples need to be fully trained.
