Post-structuralism, sometimes referred as the French theory, is associated with the works of a series of mid-20th-century French continental philosophers and critical theorists who came to international prominence in the 1960s and 1970s. The term is defined by its relationship to the system before it—"structuralism (an intellectual movement developed in Europe from the early to mid-20th century).

New Criticism. A literary movement that started in the late 1920s and 1930s and originated in reaction to traditional criticism that new critics saw as largely concerned with matters extraneous to the text, e.g., with the biography or psychology of the author or the work's relationship to literary history.

1. Introduction 1.1 Overview of Levinas's Philosophy. Jacques Derrida pointed out in 1967 that "Levinas does not want to propose laws or moral rules—it is a matter of [writing] an ethics of ethics." [] An ethics of ethics means, here, the exploration of conditions of possibility of any interest in good actions or lives. In light of that, it can be said that Levinas is not writing an ...
